CORAM: R.M.S.KHANDEPARKAR, J

DATED: 18th October, 2006.

P.C.

. The learned advocate for the petitioners states that the petitioners had raised various points in the course of hearing of the appeal. However, all those points have not been dealt with while disposing of the appeals, and in order to bring those facts to the notice of the Lower Appellate Authority, at the moment the petitioners crave leave to withdraw the petitions and to take appropriate proceedings in that regard with liberty to approach the Court in case the need arises. The petitions are accordingly allowed to be withdrawn and stand disposed of as withdrawn with the said liberty.
